"RETROCESSION to Maryland" is still a feeble cry, which finds a faint echo among the hills of Georgetown.

THE PHILADELPHIA Inquirer suggests the establishment of a Bureau of Resignation in Washington. Not a bad idea; but there might be some trouble in finding a sufficient number of industrious individuals to attend to its business.

THE NEW YORK Express says "Mr. "Beecher-an unusual thing-offered a "long prayer," &c. This is not the first time the Express has been guilty of publishing ideas not original with it. It is ocrtain that many people have long believed Mr. Beecher to be "an unusual

THE CLEVELAND Herald still insists that President Grant should "speak out loud" on the Third Term question, and forgets apparently that the agitation of the question began with his enemies, who are also the enemies of the Republican party. Since Appointation the President has not had occasion to speak out loud to his enemies and the enemies of the country; but when he does they will be astonished at the certainty of his tones, and the result will be, as ever, to prove him a loyal and patriotic citizen.

"IMPERIAL POWER" now impends in New York. The Tribune, not satisfied with the Removal Bill in its present condition, insists that Governor Tilden shall be vested with unlimited authority. While | pride. For these reasons no objection to it pretends to be afraid of imperial power in the hands of a patriotic Republican official, who would never use it even if he should be clothed with it, the Tribune carnestly desires that it shall be conferred upon a Democrat, who would not hesitate to use it for the destruction of the sacred and fundamental principles of our Gov-

WHEN GOV. TILDEN began his warfare against the corruptionists of the New York Canal Ring, the Republican press and Republican party of the State generally upheld his hands. But the exposure is going further than he expected, and strikes so deep into Democratic corruption that he begins to weaken. The Rochester Espress, alluding to this matter, says

Gov. Tilden shall not be allowed to escape Gov. Tilden shall not be anowed to excape the consequences of his message in that way. He is committed to this war without a possibility of retraction or retreat. He must be there crush the King or be ground between he is a nother millstone, and the Republican party as the upper. It be continue faithful to his allies and their mutual cause they will not de-eert him; but when he strikes his colors to the King of the Canal King, if he should, we shall denounce him as a traitor to the cause of re-form and pure government. It is not corrup-tion in the abstract or corruption in a system only that we are fighting, but corruption as of the footstool. But the attack on Fort exhibited in the operations of men who ought to be called before the public to answer for their conduct. In New York the first thing done was to get Tweed's hand off from the throat of the city, and then an attempt was made to reform the city government. That is the policy needed in the State.

THE DEMOCRATIC tactics in Louisiana are to be repeated in New Hampshire. A conspiracy is on foot to cheat the people of that State out of their rights, and foist upon them a Democratic majority in the lower branch of the Legislature. On joint ballot of both houses the Republicans really have a majority of nine. If the Democrats can turn out five Republicans and force in five of the Opposition the object of the conspiracy will be accomplished. They claim that the clerk of the last House is entitled to exercise something more than more clerical power, as plainly prescribed by law, in the organization of the new House, and their scheme is to throw out enough Republican memberselect whose prima facie certificates of election are in legal form, to permit the House subsequently to seat the required number of Democrats. In other words, it is proposed that an old Democratic clerk shall set hisiself up in violation of all law and precedent to be the judge of the qualification and manner of election of Republican members. This plan has been prematurely exposed by a discussion of the power of the clerk in the Democratic press. The result is no little excitement, and it is to be hoped the timely exposure will serve to prevent the success of this bold attempt to defy the laws, and trample upon the will of the

THE ACCUSTOMED RESULT of an attempt of two railroad trains to pass each other on the same track is recorded in our news columns this morning. The accustomed fatality among the casualties, however, does not appear to have ensued. It is, perhaps, too soon to form an opinion regarding the responsibility for the accident, but it is apparent that some one has been guilty of the most reckless neglect of rules established for the preservation of life and property. It is alleged that the engineer of the Philadelphia outgoing train attempted to reach the siding next beyond the District line before the New York incoming train arrived at that point. It is further alleged that he should have waited with his train on the double truck at the exit of the Navy Yard tunnel, and that his attempt to reach the siding was cruelly reckless. That a sober man should be guilty of such an act will surprise the majority of people; but it shows a spirit of indifference to duty and a disregard of responsibility which deserves the most severe punishment. The argument that single track roads are dangerous may apply to some extent in palliation of the criminal aspect of the affair, but it will be admitted that under proper regulations travel over single-track lines is as safe as double tracks. It is proper to add that the Baltimore and Potomac Company has made arrangements to lay a double track of steel rails very soon.

ONE of the worst canarders, as it were, among that class of Washington correspondents who seldom seek the truth, or, if they do seek it, seldom publish it, is the splenetic "regular" of the Louisville Courier Journal. The following is a specimen of his most exuberately reckless style:

"The real object of the Washington city ring in having Mr. Dana summoned here to testify in a case of which he knew nothing, and in pressing an attachment against him, is shown pressing an attachment against him, is shown by the great rage they evince at Judge Blatch-ford's decision. The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN of to-day has an exceedingly bitter article on the subject, which is said to be written or in spired by District Attorney Fisher. There never was a grosser fraud or outrage upon justice than to use the process of the court to bring Dana, here as a witness, and then deal to bring Dana, here as a witness, and then deal bring Dana, here as a witness, and then deal with him as a criminal before a packed jury and a prejudiced court."

We venture the assertion that Judge Fisher will find some difficulty in relishing the delicacy of the compliment herein exressed. In view of his relations with THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, it is possible that the correspondent in question-his dis patches are always in question-intended to perpetrate a horrid personal loke. But the idea that a jury composed of respectable citizens of Washington should be called 'packed' is unworthy of the chivalry for which this knight of the goose-quill, constdering his blue blood, should be noted, and is in fact a slander. He probably knows that a large proportion of our citizens are Virginians, or descendants of Virginians-people who can trace their ancestry, as he can, back-never mind the rest-

Governor Kellogg has been one of the best abused men in the country for the last two years.

All sorts of sins—sins of omission and sins of commission-have been laid at his door. But the glaring offense, the one great and predominant crime for which the Democratic press has again and again arraigned him, has been his manage.

of meeting all expenditures out of the current income.

Governor Kellogg has also succeeded in having the rate of taxation limited by constitutional amendment to the maximum of fourteen and one half mills on a hundred dollars. And beside this, he has secured a prevision hereafter prohibiting the extenditure of a single dollar in excess of the collected revenues. These facts put to shame the brazen and reckless assaults of the Democratic press upon the financial administration of Louisians affairs.

Now figures themselves are the best evidence on this subject. The fairest comparison will be that of Governor Kellogg's record with that of his immediate predecessor. And by taking Warmoth to their embrace and accepting him as a leader, the Hemocrats are estopped from denying the justness of the comparison. Under Warmoth in 1869 and 1870 the total receipts on account of the general fund, as shown by efficial documents, were $2,349,598. The total expenditures for the ame time were $4,578,313. This created a deficit on current expenses of $4,688,917. During the next two years, being the last hall of Warmoth's administration, the total receipts were $2,982,431. The expenses were $3,565,684, making the deficit for that time, in the form of an addition to the ficaling debt, $2,813,296.

For the two years of Governor Kellogg's administration the total receipts have been $3,214,475, and the total expenditures $2,229,317, showing a deficit of but $15,000-a deficiency not one hundred his part of what it was during Warmoth's first two years, and less than a hundred and seventieth part of the deficit for the two last years of the Warmoth government.
